Summer Happenings

Here's a look at some of the fun ways we have been enjoying summer and keeping cool.

Enjoying a visit to Black Gold Brewery. Bidding on items at the Summer Auction. Savouring some fresh berries at the strawberry social. Cycling around town with some lovely volunteers.

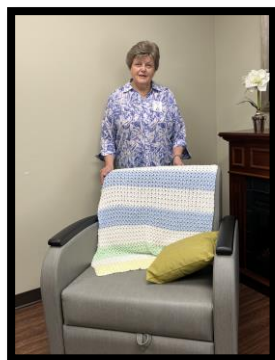

We honour and nurture the dignity of each person

Thank you to The Villa Auxiliary who purchased this chair for the Family Quiet Room. This chair pulls out into a bed so family members can spend the night close to their loved one. Pictured with the new chair is Shannon Inglis who has served as the Treasurer of The Villa Auxiliary for over 40 years! Shannon joined the Auxiliary when her husband Doug was elected as Reeve of Petrolia. Although Shannon has resigned as treasurer she will continue to serve on the Auxiliary. Thank you, Shannon, for your dedication to enriching the lives of the people who live at The Villa.

Updates from the Administrator

As we enjoy the warmth of summer, I hope this message finds you enjoying the season and all that it brings. With the longer days and pleasant weather upon us, it's an opportune time to update you on some important developments within our community.

I'm pleased to share that our administration area renovation is progressing well and is anticipated to be completed by early fall. This enhancement will improve our efficiency in serving you better and ensuring smooth operations throughout our beautiful Villa.

Planning for the small house continues to go well. We look forward to keeping you updated on the progress.

Here's to a splendid summer!

-Jen Beaubien
