Happy New Year!

We hope you had a wonderful holiday season with family and friends. Thank you for being part of the “festive fun” at The Villa. Here are a few pictures from our holiday celebrations.

We honour and nurture the dignity of each person

In the Know

Home Improvements:

We are pleased to announce that the renovations are complete, and our new reception area is open! We will be adding new signage soon as we get everyone settled into their new spaces. Tiffany, our Comfort Trust Clerk, is located at the main reception desk behind the glass, while the three offices are designated for the Social Worker, Confidential Clerk, and IPAC Nurse. Thank you for your patience during this renovation project.

Villa Updates:

Please remember to sign in using the Accushield if you are visiting someone who lives at The Villa.

We would like to welcome Murray to The Villa. Murray will be providing Spiritual Care for Elders who live at The Villa. If you or your loved one would like to connect with Murray please speak to the Recreation and Leisure staff member on your neighbourhood.

Please join us on February 14 at 2 p.m. for a Valentine's Celebration. We will have live music and a special dessert.

Did you know you can send an E-card for free to anyone who lives at the Lodge, Manor or Villa? Staff will print the card in colour and deliver it to the Elder. E-cards can be sent from the Lambton Cares website. Just click on this link:
